1. For all believers in Christ and for all of mankind according to its needs;
2. For this nation, for those given the privilege of governing her, for those who stand ready to serve and protect in our police, fire, and military forces;
3. For the Christian churches across the world, for this Christian church here in Hartland, for faithfulness to God in the stewardship of all that He has given and will continue to give us, for all pastors of the churches, all those in auxiliary service, for all missionaries sent into foreign nations;
4. For Lucy Renee Chapman being baptized this morning in the Divine Service;
5. For the following member families of this congregation:

Eric and Kristine Ernst; Ellyse & Lleyton

Steven and Julie Ewing; Lucas

Barbara Falconer

Jonathan Falconer

James and Jane Faught

SCHOOL NEWS—JULY 2016

Thanks be to God! Each year the school chapel offerings are designated to special mission projects, both near and far. This past year, three projects were selected at the beginning of the school year. During the months of September through November, $1221.97 was collected and sent to POBLO International to support their work in Michigan sharing the Gospel with immigrants and refugees. From December through February, the total chapel offerings of $1327.81 were used to support the Online Mission Trip to Guatemala sponsored by Lutheran Hour Ministries, which funds mission work and Lutheran education in Guatemala. From March to the end of the school year, our offerings of $1043.74 were sent to Wellspring Lutheran Services to assist their foster care and adoption programs. In addition to weekly chapel offerings, the students deposited $249.20 in loose change, and sometimes larger amounts of money, into the classroom mission cans. These funds were sent to LCMS World Missions to support our friends and missionaries in Indonesia, the Ferry family. This is an amazing total of $3842.72, which is about $1000 more than the previous year.

In addition to these monetary offerings, our students participated in mission related service projects to collect items to help others in need. During Lutheran Schools Week in January, students and their families collected toiletries, baby supplies, school supplies, household items, and other family necessities for Wellspring Lutheran Services to be distributed to families receiving professional intervention services due to crisis situations. To support the Board of Social Ministry, benevolence collections were used to help fill baskets for needy families in our congregation and the community during Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Easter. The fall collections had a special focus on personal hygiene and household items that cannot be purchased with other forms of assistance.

God has certainly worked in the hearts of our students and their families to share their blessings with others. We pray that the lessons learned from this past year will be used as a foundation and pattern of stewardship throughout life as they walk with the Lord and grow in His grace.

PARENTS OF YOUTH! The Youth Cedar Point Trip is coming up July 26-27, and we've had an overwhelming response from the Youth. However, we need more adult chaperones! If we are unable to get more adults to accompany the Youth, we will have to cancel the event. This is a great opportunity for you to spend a day with your kids and their friends. Plus, it's only $20 to go! If you have questions or are able to commit to chaperoning, please email Sarah Foradori at: sarah.foradori@gmail.com.

NEWS FROM THE LCMS CONVENTION

MILWAUKEE (July 12, 2016) — Delegates to the 66th Regular Convention of The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod turned their attention to family, youth and young adults on Tuesday afternoon and passed all six resolutions from Floor Committee 16 on the topic.

The second-priority resolution, which was adopted by an 892-47 vote, “[commends] the work of the Office of National Mission’s Lutheran Family initiative” and adds a new mission priority to the Synod’s current list of six.

“Strengthen and support the Lutheran family in living out God’s design” will be added to:

Plant, sustain and revitalize distinctly Lutheran churches;

Support and expand theological education;

Perform human care in close proximity to Word and Sacrament ministry;

Collaborate with the Synod’s members and partners to enhance mission effectiveness;

Nurture pastors, missionaries and professional church workers to promote spiritual, emotional and physical well-being; and Enhance early childhood, elementary and secondary education and youth ministry.

The other five resolutions adopted include: To celebrate the ministry of long-time Youth Ministry leader Rev. Dr. Terry K. Dittmer, who “has faithfully and capably served the Lord” and LCMS Youth Ministry for 37 years and “strengthened the faith of many and brought into the fellowship of our Lord an unknown number through his Christ-centered commitment to the young people of the LCMS.” Dittmer, director of Youth Ministry from 2001 to 2014, currently serves as senior director/youth ministry specialist and plans to retire after the LCMS Youth Gathering, set for July 16-20.

To “deliberately encourage, exhort and catechize men of all ages to fulfill their God-given role as the spiritual head of their households” and “create specific ministries” to provide Christian care and support to fathers.

To provide resources to young adults, campus ministries and congregations “to meet the spiritual needs of young adults” and increase the number of service opportunities available to them, particularly through the Lutheran Young Adult Corps, young-adult servant events and volunteer opportunities with LCMS Youth Gatherings.

To increase efforts to “retain college-age youth” through campus ministries and LCMS U, and encourage LCMS U “in the next triennium to develop a strategic and comprehensive plan to help congregations and families better prepare high school graduates for the transition to college life,” including “boldly witnessing to their faith on campus and in the public square.”

To encourage the LCMS Commission on Theology and Church Relations and the Synod’s Scouting Task Force to “move quickly” in providing “guidance to congregations and families regarding involvement” with scouting organizations. The resolution specifies that this guidance “be made available within 12-18 months” from the conclusion of the convention.

The 2016 LCMS convention is meeting July 9-14 at the Wisconsin Center under the theme “Upon This Rock.” Among the 1,500 convention participants are some 1,125 clergy and lay voting delegates.
